Known for its legendary healing powers, the Noni plant was brought to the Hawaiian Islands by ancient Polynesians. The Hawaiian people use the juice of this tropical fruit as a natural, multi-purpose healing agent. Start with an application of Noni gel, and then wrap to enhance absorption. Noni is soothing, healing and naturally tightens the skin. Fire dancers used Noni Gel to heal their burns; so it's perfect for the treatment of sunburn. Follow with warm Coconut milk poured over your body and gently massaged in, to leave you with that healthy glow of a Tropical Island Paradise.
